Hi Madhurima Chakraborty

You are receiving this email because your idea has been shortlisted for International Women's Hackathon 2018. Only the team leaders are receiving the email and it's your responsibility to inform the rest of your team members regarding the same.

If multiple ideas have been shortlisted from submissions made by your team, please proceed with the best idea which you believe gives you the maximum chances of winning the hackathon. Only one application/prototype can be submitted per team.

Few of things which you would have to mandatorily submit to make complete submissions are:

- Screenshots of your app
- Presentation
- Demo link (can be a Heroku link or hosted app in app stores or Google drive public link for apps for android and ios etc)
- Repository URL (Github/bitbucket link)
- Video URL (screen recorded video of working application prototype)
- Instructions to run

The Judging criteria are:

- Idea/Conceptualization
- Design/UI/UX
- Code/Scalability
- Overall Usability

We wish you all the very best. Know that you have taken a large step in breaking the stereotype and becoming a role model for a future generation of (she)hackers. May the best team win.
